NEGLIGENCE

One Mishar, whose name was Kerim, was a diligent worker and good dzhigit, but he didn't like to bath often, and never were his clothes clean. In other words, Kerim was very untidy man.

When somebody told him, "Kerim, what is happening to you! Why are you always so dirty? You should bath at least for once!" he answered to them, "I have no time for that!"

So he was always dirty. But once it happened, that Kerim got some disease. All his body got covered in sores and scabs. He was lying writhed from pain, and when other people asked, "Kerim, what is happening to you?" he answered, "God is punishing me for all the sins I did".

Other people didn't agreed to that and said, "It's true, Kerim, because God doesn't like those who prefer to stay dirty. If you visited the bath house or washed yourself with soap at least once a week, such a misfortune would not have happened to you."

Finally, they managed to persuade Kerim, and he was taken to the hospital. There he was washed, dressed in clean robe and got proper cure. After some time he really recovered and was allowed to go home.

When he returned from hospital, Kerim started working at one factory. You probably know, that some paints, used at factories, are venomous. Once the owner of that factory gave Kerim some paint and told him to mix it good. Kerim did so, and when he finished, he decided to have a lunch. As usual, he didn't wash his hands before eating. So all the paint, that left on his hands, stuck to the bread he ate. And suddenly, Kerim felt the terrible ache in his belly. He fell down on the floor, convulsing from pain, and after some time Kerim died. It appeared that that paint contained venom.
