

Part 4Questions 21 to 30

You will hear Dr Jackson talking about his profession as a veterinarian.

For questions 21 to 30, fill in the missing information in each numbered space.

Use NO MORE THAN ONE WORD for each space.

You will hear the interview twice. Answer all questions.

TRACK 10

An Interview with a Veterinarian

A typical work day for Dr Jackson, a veterinarian at a veterinary clinic, begins with a morning jog and breakfast before going to work. He leaves for work early so he can avoid (21) _____ jams. He treats most (22) _____ pets but he now mostly treats cats as he is stationed in the cat clinic.

Pet owners bring their sick pets to the clinic as early as 9 a.m. because their pets have been sick since the previous (23) _____ and they are in dire need for (24) _____. Pet owners are advised to (25) _____ their sick or infected cats to (26) _____ their food and water (27) _____ and to see if they are (28) _____ and defecating.

Dr Jackson gave a few words to aspiring veterinarians to have passion, patience and (29) _____ due to the challenging nature of the course but the experience is highly rewarding and (30) _____.