Vocabulary check

1. I ran out of petrol, had a broken windscreen, and then got a _____ _____ – the whole trip was a chapter of accidents. (dziura w oponie)

2. Being given _____ _____ at the scene of the accident probably saved his life. (pierwsza pomoc)

3. The list included the i_____ George Drake, a double murderer. (zniesławiony)

4. The police have kept the nightclub under s_____ because of suspected illegal drug activity. (observation)

5. He announced that there would be more s_____ controls on the possession of weapons. (strict and precise)

6. When managers e_____ employees with important decisions, they signal their respect for those employees. (powierzyć)

7. The accident was the i_____ consequence of his careless driving. (unavoidable)

8. He had the e_____ sensation of being watched. (weird)

9. Feeling around the issue r_____ _____: there have been several demonstrations at which protesters have been arrested. (is intense)

10. Any civil servant who talks to his or her s_____ about work would be committing an offence. (husband or wife)

LIVEWORKSHEETS

11. There are several vitamins that you can ___ _____ on: vitamin A, vitamin B6, vitamin E, iron, magnesium, phosphorus, and zinc. (przesadzić)

12. The police didn't have enough evidence to _____ him. (skazać)

13. Her work for charity is highly l _____. (chwalebny)

LIVEWORKSHEETS