READING

"The need of a poor man"

Read the text about "The need of a poor man" and choose the correct option

One day, a poor man, who had only one piece of bread to eat, was walking by a restaurant. There was a pot of soup on the table. The poor man held his bread over the soup, so the steam from the soup went into the bread, and gave it a good smell. Then, he ate the bread.

The restaurant's owner was very angry at this, and he asked the man for money, in exchange for the steam from the soup. The poor man had no money, so the restaurant's owner took him to Gideon, who was a judge at that time. Gideon thought about the case for a little while.

Then, Gideon took some money from his pocket, he held the coins next to the restaurant owner's ear, and shook them, so that they made a jingling noise.

"What was that?" asked the restaurant's owner.

"That was payment for you" answered Gideon.

"What do you mean?" That was just the sound of coins! Protested the restaurant's owner.

"The sound of coins is payment for the smell of the soup" answered Gideon. "Now go back to your restaurant".
