5. READING

Read the text and choose the correct option

Last weekend, my friends and I went on an adventure. We visited a beautiful forest near our town. We have heard stories about this magical place, so we were excited to explore it. As we walked through the trees, we discovered a hidden waterfall. The sound of rushing water was so soothing, and we decided to have a picnic near it.

During the picnic, we shared stories and laughter. I brought my camera, so we took many pictures to capture the special moments. After enjoying the peaceful surroundings, we decided to go for a hike. The trail led us to a clearing with a breathtaking view of the sunset. It was a sight to behold, and we felt lucky to have witnessed it.

Later, we built a small campfire and roasted marshmallows. We talked about our dreams and the adventures we wanted to have in the future. As the night sky filled with stars, we realized how small we are in this vast universe.
