

Listening Practice - I Lost Track of Time!

W: Hi, Harold. Did you just get back from Jane's house? Did you have 1)?

B: Hi, Mom. Yes, I just got back. I had dinner there with her parents.

W: I see. Were you able to finish 2)?

B: Actually, I 3) able to finish all of it.

W: Why not? You 4) that you would finish your homework if I 5) you to go to Jane's house. What did you do the whole time?

B: We were doing our homework when Jane's 6) We had dinner together. We 7) a long time. We didn't realize that it was already time for me to go home. I'm really sorry, Mom.

W: I understand that it's fun to 8) It's more important to finish your homework before dinner, though.

B: Why before dinner?

W: That way, you won't 9) , and you can get a good night's rest.

B: I'm sorry, Mom. Next time, I'll stay 10) my homework and finish it as early as possible.

How do you usually spend your weekend?