

B. Match the sentences with the question tags.

1. Bill could read when he was five,
2. You went to the gym yesterday,
3. She won't be too long,
4. Brian and Keith hate jogging,
5. You didn't use to lift weights every day,
6. Jack was working out when we saw him,
7. Connie will be 17 next year,
8. Her cousins don't like going to the gym,

☐
☐
☐
☐
☐
☐
☐
☐

- a. won't she?
- b. couldn't he?
- c. did you?
- d. do they?
- e. will she?
- f. don't they?
- g. didn't you?
- h. wasn't he

C. Circle the correct question tag.

1. Barry hasn't seen this film, has he / hasn't he?
2. Your husband agreed to go to Malta, did he / didn't he?
3. Lorna should exercise more, should she / shouldn't she?
4. You don't have to work tomorrow, do you / have you?
5. They spend many hours at the park, do they / don't they?
6. Tim's sister can play the piano, can't he / can't she?
7. We won't go to the South of France this year, will we / won't we?

E. Complete the dialogue with the phrases a-e.

- a. That's even worse.
- b. That's true, but I need to exercise.
- c. So, jogging it is then.
- d. I disagree.
- e. You can swim, can't you?

D. Complete the dialogues with the correct question tag.

1. A: You're not going jogging, _____?
B: Why not?
A: It's raining outside, _____?
B: No, it stopped five minutes ago.
2. A: We need another player for the football team, _____?
B: Yes, what about Richard?
A: He can't play football, _____?
B: He's quite good actually.
3. A: You don't want anything from the supermarket, _____?
B: I don't think so. Hey, wait! There isn't any bread, _____?
A: No, we need some.
B: And you won't forget to get milk, _____?

- A: Jogging is great fun, isn't it?
B: (1) _____ It's quite boring.
A: But you go every day, don't you?
B: (2) _____
A: Why don't you go to a gym?
B: No way. (3) _____
A: I agree.
B: What about doing something different?
(4) _____
A: Of course. But there isn't a pool near my house, is there?
B: You're right. (5) _____
A: I guess so.

- Question Tags
- ▶ Kate is a secretary, isn't she?
 - ▶ You exercise every day, don't you?
 - ▶ Roger can take you home, can't he?
 - ▶ Anna isn't at home, is she?
 - ▶ You don't like sports, do you?
 - ▶ Henry can't drive a car, can he?

Complete the sentences with the correct question tag.

1. Jenny hasn't joined the karate class,
_____?
2. John went jogging, _____?
3. Carl and Jim work out at the gym,
_____?
4. Kate's got the flu, _____?
5. They won't go to school tomorrow,
_____?
6. Jim is exercising, _____?
7. You don't lift weights very often,
_____?