Enjoyment is what drinking wine is all about. However, the more you know, as / the (1) easier it becomes to select the right wines for you or your guests. Wine is basically grape juice to that / which (2) yeast has been added causing it to ferment and produce alcohol. Alcohol is flavourless, so there must be something more to / in (3) wine than this. Many of the secrets of wine lie / stand (4) within the grape. Its pulp is a sugar solution which contains the things that give a wine its fruity flavour. In a dry wine, most of grape's sugar has been converted / replaced into (5) alcohol. In a sweet one, more sugar is left. This can be felt on the edge / tip (6) of the tongue. The pulp also contains acidity which gives the wine "crispness" that makes the lips / mouth (7) water. The skin contains flavour and tannin which gives a wine firmness. White grapes have their skins removed before fermentation so tannin is only really found in red wines. The fact that the skins of black grapes are left on while / during (8) the wine is fermented gives red wine its colour.
