

STATING PURPOSE

Grade 9 Junior High School
by Achmasepti Kumala

Complete the sentences below by using “to/for/so that” to state purposes!

1. The student goes to the library _____ get some articles.
2. You may postpone our meeting _____ you can join the party.
3. My uncle lends me the books _____ my assignment.
4. The lion is in the cage _____ not endangering the zoo visitors.
5. His son rides his motorcycle fast _____ being punctual..
6. Mother washed the vegetables _____ we have a hygienic meal.
7. The taxi driver took me to the nearest bus station _____ get the early departure.
8. The football players practice regularly _____ the next national competition.
9. Your friend doesn't tell you her story _____ keep it as a secret.
10. I am not going to the foreign countries _____ accompanying my old mother at home.
11. Shella has prepared the birthday party _____ please her father.
12. You have to study hard _____ enlarging your knowledge.
13. Always listen to your parents' advices _____ you will have a bright future.
14. Reading lots of books is one way _____ make you more sophisticated.
15. The crocodile is swimming _____ approach the monkey on the river bank.
16. We must be honest and trustful _____ get along with others well.
17. The boys are playing basketball at the court _____ being healthy.
18. Some teachers follow a workshop _____ upgrading their understanding on the digital media.
19. The stadium is so clean _____ the upcoming sport event.
20. _____ being famous, the singer invites the top composers in her new album.
21. Mr. Kurniawan works overtime _____ finishing his project on time.
22. The students must learn the moral value of the story _____ be a better person.
23. Vivian reads the manual of using the vacuum cleaner _____ avoiding the misoperation.
24. The elephants are running out of the forest _____ the big fire.
25. We must respect others _____ we can live peacefully .

