

Expressions with prepositions / phrasal verbs TEST {PR}

Fill in missing prepositions

1. You need to engageour campaign, it's perfect for you.
2. What are you referring?
3. You should behavea proper way here.
4. I'm fullenergy today.
5. It can change certain conditions
6. Tom is accompanied his girlfriend, Sarah.
7. Don't stick your tongue, it's inappropriate.
8. I shouldn't grumble my boyfriend – he's actually really lovely.
9. I want to draw your attention his book, it's really worth reading.
10. I wanted to warn you going to that region, it's rather hazardous.
11. I'm accustomed staying at home alone after so many months in this pandemic.
12. He seemed eagertalk all night
13. Restrictions imposedparticipants
14. Refrainhiring beginners
15. Put sthfor a later date
16. Shownumerous tricks
17. Duebad weather
18. She told mefor not coming on time
19. You need to speak if you want to be heard.
20. Your company is associated high quality products.
21. Take part the competition
22. Take new sport
23. The roof is covered snow
24. This product is popularwomen
25. He was sure himself
26. She smiledme
27. Parents looktheir kids
28. You need to searchyour car keys
29. I have a good relationship with my sister, I get*with her really well

30. Can you take caremy dog for a few days.
31. Yesterday, I bumpedmy classmate
32. I camea strange envelope while organizing my documents.
33. The cat knockedthe vase on the table.
34. I think you can getthe first two chapters, just read them.
35. There are variety*reasons why I don't want to go there.
36. Could you sum our meeting, please?
37. Struggle correct pronunciation
38. The house looks out the ocean
39. I'd like to enrola computer course.
40. You need to put more effort studying for matura exam.
41. Follow the rules set by the owner of the house
42. You should getthis train on the next station.
43. They were ejected a venue for failing to comply with regulations
44. We apologize the mistake and the inconvenience.
45. It turned that they weren't cousins, after all
46. The room was packedpeople.
47. You must carryyour task and then you can go home.
48. Would you like to dropfor a chat?
49. What is the purposeyour visit ?
50. I'd like to warn youmaking that mistake