

If clauses

(?)

1. If you come in time, I won't punish you.
2. If you came in time, I wouldn't punish you.
3. If you had come in time, I wouldn't have punished you.

1. If she eats so much, she will get fat.
2. If she, she
3. If she, she

It's SCHOOL Time!

1. If it snows on Friday, we will stay at home.
2. If it, we
3. If it, we

1. If I scold your daughter, you will be angry with me.
2. If I, you
3. If I, you

1. If I tell him the truth, he won't believe me.
2. If I, he
3. If I, he

1. If you wait a little, you will meet her.
2. If you, you
3. If you, you

welcome back!

1. If you join us, you will have a great time.
2. If you, you
3. If you, you

1. If you give him a lift, he'll get home sooner.
2. If you, he
3. If you, he

1. If you take a nap, you'll feel better.
2. If you, you
3. If you, you

1. If you spend all his money, he won't forgive you.
2. If you, he
3. If you, he

Good luck!