

Composer considered the father of the string quartet.

Woman considered "virtuoso of chamber music".

Composer born in 1756, considered child prodigy and one of the most influential musicians in the history of music.

Title and composer of the hymn of the European Union.

Instruments that form a string quartet.

Name given to the orchestra when it is formed by a large number of musicians.