

1 Read, look and mark (✓) the correct box. SB

- ☐ a. Firefighters have already put out the fire.
☐ b. Firefighters haven't put out the fire yet.

- ☐ a. Harry has already gone to sleep.
☐ b. Harry hasn't gone to sleep yet.

- ☐ a. The students have already collected money for the disaster fund.
☐ b. The students haven't collected money for the disaster fund yet.

- ☐ a. The firefighters have already saved the chicks.
☐ b. The firefighters haven't saved the chicks yet.

Open to Learn

The fire has already burned a lot of trees. Firefighters haven't gotten the fire under control yet. Have they saved the eagles yet?

2 Write sentences with already or yet using the clues and prompts.

1. (The fire truck isn't here.)

The fire truck / not arrive / .

2. (Emma's dad donated money to the disaster fund last night.)

Emma's dad / donate / money to the disaster fund / .

3. (The adult eagle flew away when the fire came.)

The adult eagle / fly away / .

4. (The eagle chicks are in the nest.)

The eagle chicks / not fly away / .

David couldn't sleep.
It was too noisy.
It wasn't quiet enough.

3 Complete the sentences with the adjectives in the box plus too or enough. Then listen and check.

dark quick long dangerous cold

1. The firefighters didn't go inside the building because it was _____.
2. Police stopped searching for the monkeys at midnight because it was _____.
3. The rescuers' ladder wasn't _____ to reach the cat.
4. The shopkeeper wasn't _____ to catch the thief.
5. The children didn't swim for long because it was _____.

4 Read, look and complete the sentences. Use too or enough plus the adjectives in parentheses.

I can't sleep.

It's _____ (noisy).

Lucy can't walk.

She is _____ (strong).

The ambulance can't get to the hospital.

The road is _____ (busy).

The chicks can't fly yet.

They are _____ (old).