

extracurricular activities	impressive	scholarship
military status	references	application form
strengths	leadership

1. Peter is always a head of projects. He has high skills.
2. To apply for this job, please fill out this first.
3. Kate is a very smart high school student. She just received a to study in college.
4. During a job interview, you should talk about your such as being independent and being honest.
5. Some companies ask for like your former professors or former employers.
6. When men apply for jobs, they need to inform employers about their .
7. Ann is a successful business woman at the age of 23. I think it is .
8. I don't have because I work so many hours per week.