The Menara Kudus Mosque, also known as Al-Aqsha Mosque by locals, is one of the oldest mosques in Indonesia. The mosque is in Kudus, Central Java. The mosque was hundreds of years ago and it has preserved the tomb of Sunan Kudus, one of Wali Sanga. The mosque is now famous as a pilgrimage place.

The mosque was in the pre- Islamic architectural style. The design combined conservative Javanese style such as split doorways-Hindu_Buddist influence-and pyramid roof. Another unique aspect of this mosque In the existence of beduk. The beduk is in a tower in a Balinese-style temple. The beduk is to summon Muslims to pray
