

Part III

Summary of the chapter 3

Task 1. Fill in the blanks using the word bank:

recover, wounded, servant, pulse, turn him in, die, bluntly, superstitious, stubbornly, participate

Hana didn't want Sadao to touch the ..... man so she suggested to order her..... Yumi to leave the children for a few minutes and wash him. Sadao agreed and decided to go to explain to the other servants why they had sheltered a white man in the house.

Before leaving he checked the soldier's ..... It was faint but it was there. Sadao concluded that a young man would ..... unless he was operated on. Hana was scared to even think about the consequences of white man surviving.

But Sadao said that something had to be done with him and left to talk to the servants. The two servants were frightened at what their master had just told them. The old gardener ..... said that the master should not heal the wound of the white man. He was ..... and believed that if they tried to reverse what the gun and the sea did, those would take revenge on them.

Hana herself was also frightened although she was not superstitious as the old man was. Could it ever be good to help an enemy?

Nevertheless she told Yumi to fetch the hot water and bring it to the room where the white man was. But Yumi ..... said that she had never washed a white man and would not wash a dirty one this time, especially that he was an enemy. Hana was afraid - what if the servants reported the incident?

She tried to explain to Yumi that they would only help him ..... and then ....., but Yumi insisted that she didn't want to ..... in it and it wasn't her business. So Hana had no choice but to wash the helpless man herself.

Task 2. Connect the the words from the text with the synonyms:

bluntly

chest

breast

uncertainly

courteously

politely

dignity

to pay back

doubtfully

blanket

vitality

in direct manner

extraordinary

exceptional

faint

self-respect

quilt

life, liveliness

(to) take revenge

weak

Good luck!

Click the Finish button below 