

Be: past simple affirmative

Singular subject pronouns

I was

You were

She/He/It was

Plural subject pronouns

You were

We were

They were

Practise

1. Today I am happy but yesterday I was were sad.
2. Now Jasmine is at home but last week she was were on holiday.
3. This year there is a jazz festival here and last year there was were a pop festival.
4. Today Mr. Brown is at work but yesterday he was were ill.
5. These days there are houses here but 100 years ago there was were trees.
6. Today I feel fine but yesterday I was were in bed all day.
7. My mother is a manager now but was were a shop assistant last year.
8. Today is Saturday and we are at home, but yesterday we was were at school.
9. This summer we are staying at home but last year we was were in Greece.
10. Today Tina and Jack are tired because yesterday they was were at the gym.