

1 Complete the table.

Consumers buy products. Consumers sell their skills and labour.

The government buys products and resources.

Producers pay for labour and skills. Producers sell goods and services.

Labour market	Product market