Famous twins

Some people are famous because we see them ¹ our TV screens, we hear their music on the radio or we know their faces from magazines. But how does it feel if that famous person is your twin brother or sister?

Acting and politics

Actor Scarlett Johansson is from New York, USA. She acted for the first time in a theatre when she ² eight years old. One year later she was in a film. She went to acting school in 2002 and is now famous all over the world for films like Lost in Translation, Iron Man and the Captain America series. But did you know that she has a twin brother called Hunter?

Hunter Johansson has ³ brown eyes and dark hair, Scarlett's eyes are green and she's got fair hair. Hunter often goes to 'red carpet' events with Scarlett. Hunter was in one film, with his sister, in 1996 and in a television series in 1981. He is interested in politics and in 2008 he worked with Barack Obama on his presidential campaign.

Working together

Former supermodel Gisele Bündchen ⁴ five sisters. Patricia, her twin, is five minutes younger than her famous sister. They grew up in Brazil and they both went to modelling school when they were thirteen years old. She became her sister's manager and spokeswoman. Now ⁵ sisters work together at Gisele's clothing company.

Gisele remembers ⁶ it wasn't always better to be different. She was much taller and thinner than the other children in her class at school. 'It wasn't fun,' she says.
