

LISTENING

8.1 Listen to a programme about world records and clothes. Match 1–5 with A–E.

- | | |
|--|-----------|
| 1 first fashion designer | A India |
| 2 longest wedding dress | B Britain |
| 3 highest shoes | C France |
| 4 most people wearing sunglasses in the dark | D China |
| 5 people who dress the worst in Europe | E Spain |

8.2 Read the notes and try to guess the answers. Listen again and complete the notes.

Interesting clothes facts

- Rose Bertin made clothes for: the ¹ of France
- time it took to make the world's longest wedding dress: one ²
- ³ cm: the height of the world's highest shoes
- ⁴ 2015: the date 6,774 people wore sunglasses in the dark
- money British people spent on clothes in 2015: ⁵ million euros

superlative adjectives

3 Complete the table.

adjective	superlative
easy	the easiest
slow	1
big	2
funny	3
4	the worst
sad	5
good	6

4 Rewrite the sentences. Use the opposites of the highlighted words in the superlative form.

My brother's bedroom is the cleanest in the house.
My brother's bedroom is the dirtiest in the house.

- I think this is the best DVD I've got.
.....
- I've got three cousins. Rafael is the shortest.
.....
- This is the saddest day of my life.
.....
- Our classroom is the hottest in the school.
.....
- They've got three dogs. Pablo is the quietest.
.....

5 Complete the sentences with the superlative form of these adjectives.

fast long more small young

- The AVE Talgo 350 in Spain is one of the trains in Europe. It travels at 330 kilometres per hour.
- The house in Britain is in Conwy, Wales. There are only two rooms – one upstairs and one downstairs.
- Praia do Cassino in Brazil is the world's beach, at 240 km.
- The driver to win the Formula 1 championship was Sebastian Vettel. He was only twenty-three years old when he won.
- Canada has the lakes of all the countries in the world.