

Read the passage below about a group of friends planning a party. Fill in the blanks with the appropriate phrases: "how about," "let's," or "why don't."

Party Planning with Friends

Jasmine and her friends were eager to plan a memorable party. They sat around, tossing ideas back and forth.

Jasmine: "Okay, everyone, _____ we make this party unforgettable?"

Chris: "I agree! _____ we have a costume theme? People can dress up as their favorite characters!"

Emma: "That sounds like a blast! And, _____ we set up a DIY photo booth with fun props?"

Mike: "Great idea, Emma! And, _____ we create a playlist with everyone's favorite songs?"

Lisa: "Yes, let's do it! Also, _____ we organize some games to keep everyone entertained?"

The group was buzzing with excitement as they continued planning. They agreed on decorations, food, and a surprise activity.

