

Read the following description and guess the object. Write down your answer.

Exercise 1

Description:

This object is found in almost every kitchen. It has a handle and a flat, circular base. People use it for cooking food. It can be made of metal or non-stick material. You often hear a sizzling sound when food is placed on it. What is this object?

Answer:

Exercise 2:

Description: This object is used for writing. It has a pointed end that leaves marks on paper. It comes in different colors, and you can erase the marks it makes. What is this object?

Answer

Exercise 3:

Description: Found in most living rooms, this object is often soft and has cushions. People sit on it to relax, and it comes in various sizes and colors. What is this object?

Answer:

Exercise 4:

Description: This object is a source of light. It hangs from the ceiling and has bulbs. You turn it on and off to brighten a room. What is this object?

Answer:

Exercise 5:

Description: This object is usually round and flat. People use it to hold and carry food. It is often made of ceramic and comes in various designs. What is this object?

Answer:

Exercise 6:

Description: You wear this object on your wrist. It tells you the time and sometimes the date. It comes in different styles and can be made of leather or metal. What is this object?

Answer:

Exercise 7:

Description: This object is often found in the bathroom. It has a seat and a bowl. People use it for personal hygiene. What is this object?

Answer:

Exercise 8:

Description: This object is usually made of paper and comes in different shapes. People use it to wrap gifts, and it often has colorful patterns. What is this object?

Answer:

Exercise 9:

Description: Found in many bedrooms, this object is rectangular and often has a soft surface. People use it for sleeping and relaxation. What is this object?

Answer:

Exercise 10:

Description: This object is used for taking pictures. It has a lens and a screen. People carry it to capture memories. What is this object?

Answer: