SMELL ORGAN: NOSE

1. Name the parts of the nose.

2. Fill in the blanks with correct word:

1. The 2 holes that we have in our nose are called: _____
2. Behind the nose, there is a space inside our head called_____ which contains many small receptors to detect smells or odours in the air.
3. The _____ is a tissue that covers our nasal cavity and produces mucus to trap unwanted small particles, like dust or germs. That could be harmful for our lungs.
4. The information about smells travels to the brain through our_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS