

REVISION OF PERSONAL PRONOUNS AND POSSESSIVE ADJECTIVES

1. Complete the following sentences with he, him, she or her.

1. Peter's nice, I like _____ a lot.
2. 'Is Mary at home?' 'Yes, _____ is.' 'Can I speak to _____, please?'
3. Ann likes Bill, but he doesn't like _____ much.
4. Susan has got a boyfriend and always gives _____ a present for his birthday.
5. My father is ill. _____ didn't go to work yesterday and I had to look after _____.

2. Complete the following sentences with I, me, it, you, they, them, we or us.

1. Excuse _____, where can _____ buy stamps?
2. _____ bought our car last year. _____ is a Volkswagen.
3. _____ have got some pictures about my holidays. Would _____ like to see _____?
4. 'How are your parents?' '_____ are very well, thanks.' 'Say hello to _____ from _____.'
5. My husband and I are planning a trip. _____ want to go to Australia.

3. Underline the correct pronoun.

1. WE / US all went with THEY / THEM.
2. I came here with John and HER / SHE.
3. HE / HIM told Mary to go with HE / HIM and his mother.
4. There are some letters for YOU / YOUR and I / ME.
5. Basil gave Henry and I / ME an ice-cream, and WE / US went to the cinema with HE / HIM.

4. Complete the following sentences using the appropriate possessive pronoun: my, your, his, her, its, our or their.

1. She's from Spain. _____ name is Carmen.
2. Hornsea is a small village and _____ church is the highest building.
3. He broke _____ leg while playing football with _____ friends.
4. 'Is _____ name John Colett?' 'No, I'm Peter Hill.'
5. _____ house is bigger than _____ house because they have plenty of money and we don't.
6. I would like to have a dog but _____ parents say _____ house is too small for a dog.