

1. What is Recount Text ?
 - A. A text which tells about something that happened in the past
 - B. A text which tells about something that will happen
 - C. A text that tells about our daily activity
 - D. A text that tells about our future
2. What are the generic structure
 - A. Event, Introduction, Reorientation
 - B. Orientation, Event, Reorientation
 - C. Introduction, Event, Closing
 - D. Introduction, Discussion, Reintroduction
3. What does Event mean?
 - A. Series of the event
 - B. The feeling of the text
 - C. It is used to educate the readers
 - D. It is used to entertain the readers
4. What tense does recount text use?
 - A. Past Participle
 - B. Present Perfect
 - C. Past Progressive
 - D. Past Tense
5. What is the function of re-orientation?
 - A. To tell the events
 - B. To entertain the readers
 - C. To summarize the event / feeling the writer
 - D. To introduce the content of the text

6. What is the function of Orientation?
- A. To tell the events
 - B. To conclude
 - C. To make the text more authentic
 - D. To Introduce the Events
7. "Last February, I went to Bandung with UI Creates students. UI Creates is a short course program from University of Indonesia for international students. At that time, the participants were from Japan, China, and Philippine."
What is the generic structure of the passage above?
- A. Event
 - B. Discussion
 - C. Re-orientation
 - D. Orientation
8. Orientation includes an introduction to....
- A. What, where,how,which
 - B. What ,who, where, when
 - C. How, which, who,will
 - D. Whose, who,which,what