READ THE SENTENCES. ORDER THEM ACCORDING TO THE STORY YOU READ AND WRITE THE CORRECT NUMBER IN THE BOX.

	• Her mother said to her: "Come, Little Red Riding Hood. Here's a piece of cake and a bottle of orange juice. Take them to your grandmother.
	• Then a hunter took an axe and cut open the wolf's belly. Finding Little Red Riding Hood and her grandmother.
	• The wolf opened the door and came in, went straight to Grandma's bed, and ate her. Then he took her clothes and put them on.
	• Once upon a time there was a sweet little girl. Her grandmother loved her very much and gave her a little red velvet hat.
	• Then he pounced on poor Little Red Riding Hood and ate her.
	• When the little girl entered the forest, a wolf approached her.

LIVEWORKSHEETS