

Memory and Learning Quiz

1

Answer the Questions!

00:00 - 06:19

<https://youtu.be/iHeeMI0syc>

- 1 What is the quiz question asked at the beginning of the video?
 - a How many digits of pi did Chao Lu remember?
 - b Can you remember people's names?
 - c Do you have a good memory, Rob?
 - d Where did Chao Lu study?
- 2 According to Dr. Jared Horvath, what is the first rule for remembering information?
 - a Repetition is key.
 - b Focus on what you already understand.
 - c Make links between new information and something you already understand.
 - d Memorize as much as you can.
- 3 What does Dr. Horvath think education should involve?
 - a Cramming students' heads with facts and figures.
 - b Deep learning and understanding.
 - c Memorizing information exactly as it is.
 - d Giving students a hundred things to remember.
- 4 Why do students who cram for tests often forget what they studied?
 - a They don't focus enough.
 - b They don't repeat the information.
 - c They don't understand the information deeply.
 - d They don't have good memory muscles.
- 5 What is the definition of a photographic memory?
 - a Remembering things in exact detail.
 - b Remembering things after a one-off.
 - c Remembering things through repetition.
 - d Remembering things without focus.

6 What is the meaning of the phrase "suck at something"?

- a Be bad at doing something.
- b Be good at doing something.
- c Be interested in doing something.
- d Be focused on doing something.

7 What is the technique called that Dr. Horvath advocates for learning?

- a Deep learning.
- b Repetition.
- c Memorization.
- d Focus.

8 How many digits of pi did Chao Lu manage to remember?

- a 48,000
- b 68,000
- c 88,000
- d The video doesn't mention it.