LANGUAGE FORM AND MEANING

Questions 1-4 refer to the notice

The Swanzee School Swim Team is looking for members. Our swim team that

(1) ___

E. meet
F. meets
G. meeting
H. is meeting

twice a week is fun for those who are competitive and those who are not. The number of (2) ___

A. swimmers
B. swimmer is
C. swimmers is
D. swimmers are a lot less than it was last year because half of our team graduated. So all athletes with some swimming experience

(3) ___

A. guarantee
B. to guarantee
C. is guaranteed
D. are guaranteed

a place on the team. That means they are welcome to compete in our meets. All of the swimmers on our team (4) ___

A. is
B. are
C. being
D. they are friendly and excited to swim with new people. Any students interested in joining should call Coach Sam Drake at 555-555-5757.

Questions 5-7 refer to the following essay

Many people believe that alligators and crocodiles are the same animals with two different names, but this isn't true. These two animals (5) ___

A. are unfairly categorizing
B. will be unfairly categorized
C. have been unfairly categorized
D. had been unfairly categorized as one. In this essay, I (6) ___

A. told
B. telling
C. was telling
D. will be telling

people about the differences between these two large reptiles, Hopefully, after reading this essay, readers (7) ___

A. changed
B. are changing
C. have changed
D. will change

their opinions on these two creatures.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Questions 8-15 refer to the following biography

(8)

A.	It says
B.	It said
C.	It is said
D.	It has said

That Marie Antoinette is the most famous queen of France.

She became queen when her husband, Prince Louse-Auguste, became King Louis the 16th in 1774. In fact, she was born in Vienna, Austria, but (9)

A.	married with
B.	had married to
C.	had to be married to
D.	had to be married with

French royalty in order to unite France and Austria.

Antoinette (10)

A.	considered to be
B.	is considered to be
C.	was considered to be
D.	was considering to be beautiful and interested in fashion. The common people of France were not happy with the aristocracy so they started a revolution, but Antoinette was not (11)

A.	worried for
B.	worrying for
C.	worrying about
D.	worried about being in danger, even though she should have been. Although the French liked him in the beginning, they began to (12)

A.	accuse her of
B.	accuse her for
C.	be accused of her
D.	have been accused for being snobbish and too sympathetic to France's enemies. The people involved in the revolution (13)

A.	didn't satisfy about
B.	weren't satisfying at
C.	were not satisfied by
D.	were not satisfied with the monarchy. In turn, they saw Marie Antoinette as an enemy. After destroying the monarchy, they believed that Antoinette (14)

A.	was killed,
B.	should kill,
C.	had killed,
D.	had to be killed,

so they executed her using a guillotine. What (15)

A.	blamed
B.	is to blame
C.	is blaming
D.	is to be blaming

for death of Marie

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Antoinette? Is it the revolution, monarchy, or something else? Historians continue to wonder today.

LIVEWORKSHEETS