

Phrasal verbs (2)

I can use separable and inseparable phrasal verbs correctly.

- 1 Complete the text with the correct form of the phrasal verbs below.

come across   come up with   look up   look up to run out of   throw away   turn into   work out

In Kelvin Doe's home in Sierra Leone, there is no reliable supply of electricity. So when Kelvin, at the age of ten,                      the idea of starting up his own radio station, few people took him seriously. But Kelvin began by making his own battery. He used things which people had                     , including a piece of metal and an old cup. Amazingly, it worked! But his battery soon                      power – so he had to build a generator. He searched a rubbish dump until he                      some old DVD players. He took them apart and used the parts. Next, he needed some electronic equipment for his radio station. How could he build that? He couldn't                      it                      online or in a library, so he                      it                      for himself. Other children in his town                      him and call him DJ Focus. And his radio station has                      an important local facility. People take their phones there to charge them!

- 2 Complete the sentences with one verb and one or two particles below. You can use the words more than once.

Verbs count hold look take

Particles after down on up

- Can you                      my cat while I'm away?
- Both girls                      their aunt; they love art, and so did she.
- I'd like to talk to you before you leave, but I don't want to                      you                     .
- You shouldn't                      people just because they are poor.
- I need a reliable assistant, and I know I can                      you.

- 3 Rewrite the sentences replacing the underlined words with a suitable pronoun (it, him, her, them). Remember, pronouns go before the particle if the phrasal verb is separable.

1 He needed a lot of courage to ask out the girl next door.

2 I hope he doesn't bring up those emails when I see him.

3 They called off the match because of the snow.

4 The members are calling for Mr Lewis to resign as their leader.

5 She's going to give up eating chocolate for a year.

6 You should clean up your skates before you sell them.

VOCAB BOOST!

When you learn new phrasal verbs, you need to remember if they are separable or inseparable. You can use sth or sb to show the position of the object. Put it between the verb and the particle if the phrasal verb is separable; put it at the end if it's inseparable.

to work sth out (separable)

to turn into sth (inseparable)

- 4 Read the Vocab boost! box. Then add the other phrasal verbs in exercise 1 to the table.

Separable	Inseparable
work sth out	turn into sth

- 5 Order the words to complete the sentences. Use the table in exercise 4 to help you.

1 Can you buy some more onions? We've (them / out / of / run)                     .

2 I can't find my phone. (you / it / if / across / come)                     , tell me.

3 If you don't know the meaning of a word, (up / it / should / you / look)                     .

4 Listen to this idea. (up / my / came / friend / it / with)                     .

5 I can use these paper plates again. (don't / away / feed / them / in / to)                     .
