

1. Complete the following text with the verbs in brackets. Use the correct form of gerund and infinitive.

When a woman read my palm, I didn't expect (1) _____ (learn) anything new. I don't believe in things like that and I avoid (2) _____ (look at) my horoscope. Then I met a woman in a bar who offered (3) _____ (read) my palm. At first I didn't want her (4) _____ (do) it, but then I decided (5) _____ (try) it. She promised not (6) _____ (tell) me anything terrible. She told me about the problems I had at work. She told me that I wanted (7) _____ (change) things. I really enjoyed (8) _____ (listen) to her and she seemed (9) _____ (understand) me. Then she told me I would go on a journey which would change my life. I laughed because I couldn't afford (10) _____ (travel). Two weeks later I won a holiday to the Caribbean. Can you imagine (11) _____ (win) a holiday like that? Anyway I met my husband on that holiday, so it really did change my life! I have always wanted (12) _____ (say) thank you to that woman in the bar.

1. Answer the following questions:

- What did the woman want to read?
The woman's _____
- Where did the woman have many problems?
At her _____
- What was the genre of the main person in the story?
A _____
- What was place the woman traveled after the prediction received?
