

Going to the Doctor - exercise 1

Listening comprehension: following the conversation

Put five things in the order they happen in the conversation.

 The patient asks the doctor a question.

 The doctor gives the patient some advice.

 The patient describes a problem he has been having recently.

 The doctor gives the patient a piece of paper to take away.

 The doctor suggests that the patient sees another medical professional.