

not be allowed to /nɒt bi: ə'laʊd tə/

be expelled /bi ɪk'speld/ be punished /bi 'pʌnɪʃt/

cheat /tʃi:t/ let /let/ make /meɪk/

misbehave /mɪsbɪ'heɪv/

A Discipline is very strict in our school. We

¹ aren't allowed to take our phones to school and they don't ² allow us bring unhealthy food for lunch, like crisps or fizzy drinks. Most children behave well, but if you ³ talk too much for example, talk too much in class, you'll ⁴ be punished and the teacher will probably ⁵ ask you to stay behind after class. If you do something more serious, like ⁶ cheating in an exam, you might even ⁷ be expelled.

fail /feɪl/ pass /pɑ:s/ result /rɪ'zʌlt/

revise /rɪ'vaɪz/ take /teɪk/ (or do)

B Marc has to ¹ take an important English exam next week. He hopes he'll ² pass but he hasn't had much time to ³ revise so he's worried that he might ⁴ fail.
He won't get the ⁵ result until July.

b  7.4 Listen and check.

 LIVEWORKSHEETS