Summerhill is a boarding school in south-east England. It is a school with a difference because the teachers don't make the rules – the students make them. Breakfast is from 8.00 to 9.00 and the lessons start at 9.30. Susan is a student here and likes lessons. She is studying a lot of subjects. Ivan is a student here too. He isn't interested in lessons and he can play all day if he wants. At 12.30 it is lunch time, the students and teachers eat together. There three choices of meal: one with meat, a vegetarian option and a salad bar, too. At 1.45 there is a meeting. The students and teachers talk about problems and can change school rules in this meeting. Ivan goes shopping in town. Susan plays the violin with the orchestra. At 5.30 it is dinner time. After dinner students chat and do homework. Younger children go to bed before 9.30, but older children can go to bed when they want. So that is a day at Summerhill.
