A day in Hövelschool

Every day at seven o'clock Luca and Zeynap wake up. First, they put on some clothes. At quarter past seven they both eat a sandwich. Her sandwich often is with tomatoe. He likes to eat cheese on his sandwich. After this little breakfast they brush their teeth. Then it is time to go to school. Zeynap goes to school by tram. That's why she starts her way to school at half past seven. At quarter to eight Luca's way to school starts, because he can go by car. At eight o'clock the bell rings and Zeynap and Luca line up in a line of two. They say „Hello“ to Mrs. John, who wakes up at half past six every day to get to school, before all the kids are there. At half past nine the two kids have their breakfast in the classroom. Then they can play with their friends in the schooyard for 20 minutes. He likes to play football. Her hobby isn't football. She rather talks to her friends. At ten o'clock the third lesson starts. After a long school day the kids go home at quarter past one. After school she likes to watch TV. She reads a book at quarter past six. Luca goes to his football training twice a week. At nine o'clock Zeynap goes to sleep. Luca gets to bed earlier, because he does not want to be sleepy the next day. He likes to go to school and to learn a lot.
