Section 3: Reading Comprehension (15 minutes)

Read the passage and answer the questions.

Understanding Personalities

Everyone is different, and our personalities play a big part in who we are. Some people are shy and like to spend time alone; we call them introverted. On the other hand, some people are outgoing and love being around others; these individuals are known as extroverted.

It's okay to be introverted or extroverted; there's no right or wrong. What matters is finding a balance that makes you comfortable. Introverted individuals may enjoy reading a book or spending time in a quiet place, while extroverted individuals may prefer going to parties or playing sports with friends.

Regardless of our differences, it's crucial to accept and appreciate one another. Nobody is perfect, and that's what makes each person unique. Imagine if everyone liked the same things and acted the same way - life would be boring! So, let's celebrate our differences and learn from each other.

1. What do we call people who are shy and like to spend time alone?

- a) Outgoing
- b) Extroverted
- c) Introverted
- d) Aggressive

2. How does the passage describe introverted individuals?

- a) Enjoying parties
- b) Thriving in social situations
- c) Preferring quiet places
- d) Playing sports with friends

3. What is essential, according to the passage?

- a) Being perfect
- b) Finding a balance
- c) Acting the same way
- d) Avoiding differences

4. Why does the passage say life would be boring if everyone acted the same way?

- a) Because everyone would be perfect
- b) Because people would be introverted
- c) Because there would be no differences
- d) Because everyone would be outgoing

5. What is the main message of the passage?

- a) Introverted people are better than extroverted people.
- b) It's important to appreciate and accept differences in personalities.
- c) Only extroverted individuals can enjoy parties.
- d) Perfect people have balanced personalities.
