

Task 2

Say whether these sentences are true or false. Correct them if they are false.

1. Jim's love name was Emma
2. Jim was a swimmer.
3. Jim's friend's name was Pilkins.
4. Jim's friend worked in a drug-store.
5. When Jim came to his friend at the drug-store, he told him that he and his love decided not to do anything.
6. When Jim had gone, Pilkins, who was secretly in love with Rosy, too, ran to Mr. Riddle and told the old man that Jim and Rosy were going to elope that night.
7. Pilkins slept all night.
8. The first man Pilkins saw when he stepped out of the shop was Mr. Riddle.
9. Rosy and Jim were married at 10.15 last night.
10. Jim waited for his chance and putted the powder in old Riddle's coffee.
11. Mr. Riddle wanted to give Rosie to a rich man.
12. Pilkins wanted to save Jim.
13. Jim poured a love drug into Rosie's cup.
14. Jim looked with a victorious smile on his face when he stepped out of the shop.
15. Jim didn't want to marry Rosie.

Task 3

Complete the sentences with the information from the story.

1. Jim, a young car-driver, was a _____ at old Riddle's.
2. One tablet contained a quarter of a of morphia.
3. 'At nine Rosy goes to bed, pretending to have a _____, at ten I go under her window and help her to get down the fire escape.'
4. He handed the powder to Jim telling to give it to Rosy with _____, and received his thanks.
5. When Jim had gone, Pilkins, who was secretly in _____ with Rosy, too, ran to Mr. Riddle and told that Jim and Rosy were going to _____ that night.
6. Jim, a young _____, was a boarder at old Riddle's.
7. Jim was in love with _____.
8. Jim and Rosie wanted to get _____, but Mr. Riddle forbade them.
9. Jim's friend worked as a _____, his name was Pilkins.
10. Rosie will pretend to have a _____ when she goes to bed.

Task 4

Order the sentences according to the story

1. In the morning, first person who met Pilkins was Jim.
2. Jim told Pilkins that he was married to Rosy at 10.15 last night.
3. Jim told all the truth to Pilkins about what he did with powder.
4. Jim was in love with Rosy.
5. Jim loved discussing things with Pilkins.
6. Jim told Pilkins about his plan of eloping with Rosy.
7. Pilkins told about Jim's and Rosy's plan to Mr. Riddle.
8. Pilkins gave a powder to Jim.