

EXERCISE 57 – PRESENT PERFECT TENSE

Put in the Present Perfect tense of the verbs in brackets.
Then write out each sentence.

e.g. She (already see) the picture.
She has already seen the picture.

1. He (already buy) the book.
2. She (already sweep) the room.
3. I (already write) the letter.

4. We (already paint) the wall.
5. They (already go) home.
6. He (just take) the bag away.
7. She (just eat) the piece of cake.
8. I (just wash) my father's car.
9. We (just tell) them the news.
10. They (just get) into the bus.

EXERCISE 58 – PRESENT PERFECT TENSE

Put in the Present Perfect tense of the verbs in brackets.
Then write out each sentence.

e.g. He (just ring) the bell.
He has just rung the bell.

1. The cat (catch) a rat.
2. She (already lock) the cupboard.
3. you (throw) the rubbish away?
4. The headmaster (just speak) to them.
5. My brother (just leave) the house.
6. They (not find) the treasure yet.
7. Kim Seng (already drink) the milk.
8. We (win) the game.
9. Mary (show) you the picture?
10. The tree (fall) down.

EXERCISE 59 – PRESENT PERFECT TENSE

Put in the Present Perfect tense of the verbs in brackets.
Then write out each sentence.

e.g. We can go home now. The rain (stop).
We can go home now. The rain has stopped.

1. I can go out now. I (already finish) my work.
2. The window is shut. She (shut) it.
3. The bag is not here. Tom (take) it.
4. I don't want to go. I (already see) the picture.
5. The letter is there. The postman (bring) it.
6. It's all dark now. Someone (switch) off the lights.
7. There goes the bird. It (just fly) out of the cage.
8. He is very full. He (eat) two bowls of rice.
9. It is 5 o'clock now. you (feed) the chickens yet?
10. The boys are late. They (not arrive) 