Name: Score:

20 Multiple choice questions

Term 1 of 20

What was the purpose of medieval guilds?

- To regulate quality and ensure fair prices for goods.
- To leave Paris and teach elsewhere.
- Places where monks live, work, and worship together.
- No, they eventually formed connections with each other.

Term 2 of 20

Who controlled education until the High Middle Ages?

- Classical scholars like Plato and Aristotle.
- Church schools couldn't handle the educational needs of the growing group of clerks needed to serve the merchant class.
- Monasteries and the Church educated themselves to read and write as a part of their duties.
- Educational requirements and standards were recognized.

Term 3 of 20

Who wrote the ancient manuscripts found by the Crusaders?

- Ancient manuscripts preserved by monks.
- Classical texts by the ancients.
- Classical scholars like Plato and Aristotle.
- Spirituality and maintaining solitude.

Term 4 of 20

Where were the earliest monks found and what were they like?

- Associations formed by artisans and craftsmen to regulate quality and prices of goods.
- To leave Paris and teach elsewhere.
- In Ancient Egypt where they were hermits who rarely interacted with others.
- To regulate quality and ensure fair prices for goods.

Term 5 of 20

What are monasteries?

- No, they eventually formed connections with each other.
- To regulate quality and ensure fair prices for goods.
- Associations formed by artisans and craftsmen to regulate quality and prices of goods.
- Places where monks live, work, and worship together.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Term 6 of 20

What did the representatives of the University of Paris threaten?

- Educational requirements And standards were recognized.
- To petition for legal rights and privileges.
- To leave Paris and teach elsewhere.
- Classical scholars Like plato and aristotle.

Term 7 of 20

Why did town schools begin to open?

- Christians who adhere to rules like vows of poverty that separate them from society.
- Church schools couldn't handle the educational needs of the growing group of clerks needed to serve the merchant class.
- Monasteries and the Church educated themselves to read and write as a part of their duties.
- He realized he would lose people and tax money if they left.

Term 8 of 20

What does the term 'university' mean?

- The Latin word 'universitas' means 'a group of people organized into one guild'.
- Associations formed by artisans and craftsmen to regulate quality and prices of goods.
- In Ancient Egypt where they were hermits who rarely interacted with others.
- To regulate quality and ensure fair prices for goods.

Term 9 of 20

What eventually happened after the king agreed to protect the members?

- Educational requirements and standards were recognized.
- Classical scholars like plato and aristotle.
- To leave paris and teach elsewhere.
- Spirituality and maintaining solitude.

Term 10 of 20

What led to a higher demand for clerics in Western Europe?

- In Ancient Egypt where they were hermits who rarely interacted with others.
- The Latin word 'universitas' means 'a group of people organized into one guild'.
- Increased trade and commercialism increased the need for record keeping.
- He realized he would lose people and tax money if they left.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Term 11 of 20

Why did students and teachers organize themselves into associations?

- People other than clergy.
- To leave paris and teach elsewhere.
- Educational requirements and standards were recognized.
- To petition for legal rights and privileges.

Term 12 of 20

Which university is one of the earliest?

- To Leave Paris and Teach Elsewhere.
- The University of Paris.
- Spirituality and Maintaining Solitude.
- Classical Texts by the Ancients.

Term 13 of 20

What are monks?

- He realized he would lose people and tax money if they left.
- Classical scholars like Plato and Aristotle.
- Christians who adhere to rules like vows of poverty that separate them from society.
- Educational requirements and standards were recognized.

Term 14 of 20

Did early monks always sustain their solitude?

- Yes
- No

Term 15 of 20

What were medieval guilds?

- In Ancient Egypt where they were hermits who rarely interacted with others.
- Places where monks live, work, and worship together.
- Spirituality and maintaining solitude.
- Associations formed by artisans and craftsmen to regulate quality and prices of goods.

Term 16 of 20

What did early monks focus on?

- People other than clergy.
- Spirituality and maintaining solitude.
- The university of paris.
- Classical scholars like plato and aristotle.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Term 17 of 20

What became more accessible during this time?

- Classical scholars like plato and aristotle.
- Classical texts by the Ancients.
- Ancient manuscripts preserved by Monks.
- The university of paris.

Term 18 of 20

Who could now receive a classical education?

- To petition for legal rights and privileges.
- To leave paris and teach elsewhere.
- People other than clergy.
- Spirituality and maintaining solitude.

Term 19 of 20

What did Crusaders discover during the crusades?

- The university of paris.
- Ancient manuscripts preserved by monks.
- Classical texts by the ancients.
- Classical scholars like plato and aristotle.

Term 20 of 20

Why did the French king agree to protect the members of the University of Paris?

- Christians who adhere to rules like vows of poverty that separate them from society.
- He realized he would lose people and tax money if they left.
- Classical scholars like Plato and Aristotle.
- Educational requirements and standards were recognized.

LIVEWORKSHEETS