My New Friend at School

My new friend at school is Tom. He is a very friendly and talkative boy with curly brown hair and bright blue eyes. He always wears a green jacket and jeans. Tom is quite tall for his age and has a big smile.

Tom's favorite place in school is the library because it is quiet and full of interesting books. He loves to read about wild animals, especially lions and tigers. He finds them amazing and powerful, but also a bit scary. He says that reading is the most useful thing he does at school.

He often plays basketball during recess, but he doesn't like soccer very much. He thinks basketball is exciting while soccer is just okay.

Tom lives with his large family. He has two brothers and one sister. His brothers are funny and energetic, and his sister is very kind and smart. He really likes spending time with his family at home.

Right now, Tom is sitting next to me, drawing a beautiful picture of a lion. He is very good at art, and his drawings are always so colorful and lively. He says he wants to become an artist one day.

1. What is Tom's favorite place at school and why?

2. Describe Tom's appearance.

3. What does Tom always wear?

4. Which wild animals does Tom find amazing and powerful?

5. What sport does Tom often play during recess?

6. Why doesn't Tom like soccer very much?

7. How many siblings does Tom have, and what are they like?

8. What is Tom doing right now?

9. What does Tom want to be in the future?

10. Choose an adjective from the text that describes how Tom feels about reading.
