

SHOPPING VOCABULARY

PRICE TAG

SALE

SPECIAL OFFER

DISCOUNT

COUPON

SALE / DISCOUNT
CODE

BARGAIN

REFUND

RECEIPT

Complete using the vocabulary presented above:

1. Buy one and get one free: it is a common example of a
2. If you think something is a, you think it is a good price for what you are getting.
3. The tells you how much something costs in a shop.
4. When a shop has a, it sells some of its items at a low price for a few days or weeks.
5. If a shop gives you a you pay less than the usual price.
6. Magazines sometimes have that give you money off in a shop.
7. If you ask for a, you ask for your money back.
8. A is a small piece of paper that you get when you pay for something.
9. If you type in a when you are shopping online, you can get something for a low price.

SPEAKING :

Complete the questions and answer them with the present simple structure. Use the vocabulary from this unit to answer the questions.

Are you a crafty customer?

SALE

1

(you / ask) for a discount in a shop?

2

(you / use) coupons from magazines to get money off?

3

(you / compare) prices in two or three shops before buying something?

4

(you / wait) for something to be in the sale before buying it?

5

(you / see) something in a shop and then looked for it online to save money?