

2. Fill in the gaps with "is" or "are".

1. Who that boy? - He my brother.
2. Linda and Emma my sisters. Their faces round.
3. Who that old man? - He my grandfa
4. This my mother. Her eyes blue.
5. Who these girls? - They my sisters
6. She my grandmother. She very nic
7. Justin my big brother. His hair short.
8. My grandfather old. His teeth white.
9. His brother and sister not tall. Their fingers small.
10. Her mother beautiful. She really tall.

3. Rewrite the sentences.

Example:

I am Linda. I have a small face.

→ She is Linda.

Her face is small.

1. I am Tom. I have a round face.

→ He

His face

2. This is my mother. She has long hair.

→ She mother.

Her

3. This is my grandpa. He has short hair.

→ He my

..... hair

4. This is my brother. He has a big nose.

→ He

His

5. Lisa and Lucy are my sisters. They have long legs.

→ They, Lisa and Lucy.

..... legs

6. I am Selena's father. I have white teeth.

→ He Selena's father.

..... teeth

4. Read and choose a word in the box to fill in gaps.

sister	years	mother	read	family	teacher
often	There	go	father	likes	books

Dear Jolie,

It's David. How are you? Thank you for writing to me. I can't wait to tell you about my family.

(1)..... are four people in my family. We live in Ho Chi Minh City. My (2) is 43. He is a worker. He is a very warm-hearted man. He (3) to (4) fishing and to cook for us. He is really a good cook. My (5)..... is 35. She is a (6)..... . She loves to plant trees and to travel.

I have a big (7)..... . She is 15 (8)..... old. She likes to (9)..... books and to draw pictures. We usually read (10)..... before bedtime. On weekends, we (11)..... go fishing with our dad.

I love my family so much. Can you tell me about your (12).....?

Unit 11: All in your family