Grace and Frankie S1 Ep 10

The Delano grape strike, led by Cesar Chavez, sought fair wages and improved working conditions for farmworkers. It began in 1965, focusing on grape farms. Through nonviolent protests and a nationwide grape boycott, the movement gained attention, eventually leading to improved labor conditions for agricultural workers.

- Robert, you and Sol are gonna have to do the sauce ASAP, because it's gonna take at least three hours for the chicken to marinate, and I still have to get the corn on and start my shucking at three.
- And where will I be, sergeant, at 4:00?
- At the cutting board, you're doing the salad.
And what if we eat at 7:10?
Then we have failed.

1. set to be long ago
2. being decided right now
3. coming out of the circumstances
4. scheduled and official

ASAP
As Soon As Possible

- Let me guess, work.
- I'll keep it short, Robert. I promise I won't work this weekend.
Hello?
- You get him on the phone right now and I'll take care of it.
It's no big deal, Robert. I won't miss my shucking time.
- Phew!

- She works too hard, even weekends.
- Nah, it's fine, Frankie. It's what she loves.
- Not me. Life's too short, unless you drink my smoothies.

Fill in the gaps wiht one word each to complete the questions.

- Will you keep short?
- Won't you this weekend too?
- Who will take care it?
- Where you be at four?

- I can't believe it didn't happen after all that buildup.
- Robert, we're lucky. We dodged a bullet. Can you imagine if we told them and your daughter and Mitch walked in? We'd be the biggest assholes ever.
- Either way, we're going to be the biggest assholes ever, it's just a question of when. What about the end of September?
- I can't do the end of September. It's Rosh Hashanah. It's late this year.
- Isn't it always late?
- No. Sometimes it's early.
- All right. Then definitely October.
- Definitely, but Frankie's birthday is October 12th...
- Okay, okay. We need to look at a calendar.
- November.
- Thanksgiving. Forget it. We have all those people over. She makes tofurkey.
- Sol, I know this isn't easy for you, but we will never be together if we don't pick a day.
- You're right.
- All right. Then let's look at December.
- Oh... Frankie's mother died in December. It's always a very tough month for her.

- What is going on in here? You're supposed to be making the marinade.
- We were just trying to pick a date.
- For what?
- A trip... a cruise... to Alaska... on a ship.
- Is that what you guys wanted to talk about this morning?
- Yes! Yes! Yes! Yes!
- Well, December is out, right? January we have two fundraisers and that charity museum gala, and... Let's just do this after you've marinated the chicken.
- Great. We'll plan our trip then.
- You know what? I'll marinate the chicken myself.
