New gym, new you

We asked three people to tell us about their gyms. Which one is right for you?

Analise, Clean Gym

Do you find litter annoying? Two years ago, 250 new homes were built in my town. The rents went down, but the mess and dirt went up. I was irritated. I was frustrated. So I decided to start the Clean Gym. We walk around parks, playgrounds, and side streets and we collect garbage. It's a great way to meet new people and make a positive impact on our town. And, yes, it is exercise, too. In each Clean Gym Clean Up, we walk about five miles. And it's free! Visit our Facebook page to find out more.

Marlon, Busy Body Gym

Busy Body Gym helps people get in shape faster. I am a good example of this. Last year I changed jobs. My commute to work changed from 2 hours to just 40 minutes. Finally, I had some free time ... but not much. Could Busy Body Gym help? Yes, because in the early mornings and evenings they have many short classes. Each class is just 30 minutes. The aim is to work really hard and fast. So far, I've tried cycling, boxing, and karate. Check out their class list on Facebook. Classes can be crowded, so it's a good idea to sign up before you arrive. One short session is $12, but it's worth it. I got in shape faster with Busy Body Gym!

Victor, Workout Outside

Five years ago, I had a heart attack while I was at work. I ate too much fast food and I did no exercise at all. I knew I had to change my life. That's when I heard about Workout Outside. The idea is to use the natural environment, such as a park, as your gym. I meet my trainer twice a week in my local park – his name is Connor. We use the trees and park benches as our gym equipment. Each session is $10 and there are no other people – just you and the trainer. Workout Outside has changed the way I feel about exercise and about myself.
