

Spelling Practice

6

Words with the /sc/ sound

The letters sc can make three different sounds:

- the sk sound, as in escape.
- the s sound, as in scissors.
- the sh sound, as in conscience.

Complete the Paragraph

A. Choose the list words that best completes each sentence. Fill in the blanks in the paragraph.

My friend Andrew Smith was sitting on the dock near the lake last week, enjoying the _____, when he noticed a large spider next to him. He jumped up, _____, and ran back home as fast as his _____ would carry him. He told his father about his narrow _____. "Let's go back and look at the spider," Mr. Smith suggested. "It sounds _____!" When they reached the dock, the spider was nowhere to be found. Then Mr. Smith pointed to the water, where the spider _____ rapidly over the surface. "It's a fisher spider," he said. "They are very interesting from a _____ point of view because they can walk on water. I bet this one is looking for a _____ tadpole!"

Solve the Riddles

B. Use the list words to solve the riddles.

1. I can describe soap, a candle, or bath oil.
2. You could say that I'm all over the place.
3. I'm quite a cut-up, especially when I'm around paper.
4. I'm not a child, yet I'm all grown-up.
5. I'm too hot to handle!
6. The moon sometimes appears to take my shape.
7. When you listen to me, you remember the right to do.
8. I'm a synonym for hard work or self-control.
9. I'm going down, not up.
10. I'm lovely to look at, especially when you're outdoors.
11. I'm a work of art that has been carved or modeled.
12. I don't fit in anywhere.