

“There is” or “There are”?

Directions: Click on the phrase that completes the sentence.

1. _____ 30 students in class today.
a. There is
b. There are
2. _____ a teacher in the classroom.
a. There is
b. There are
3. _____ a piece of paper on the desk.
a. There is
b. There are
4. _____ pencils in the store.
a. There is
b. There are
5. _____ books in the living room.
a. There is
b. There are
6. _____ three rooms in the apartment.
a. There is
b. There are
7. _____ a new apartment building on this street.
a. There is
b. There are
8. _____ a dictionary in the classroom.
a. There is
b. There are
9. _____ four people in Zoom class tonight.
a. There is
b. There are
10. _____ pictures on the website.
a. There is
b. There are