

26	Last weekend we enjoyed a city break in Chester, the _____ ancient medieval town in the northwest of England.	HISTORY
27	The heart of town is the _____ of Victorian, Tudor and Gothic times.	ARCHITECT
28	Chester is the county town of Cheshire. Can you remember the Cheshire cat who _____ disappears in Lewis Carol's books about Alice?	SLOW
29	The best way to enjoy the centre of Chester is on foot. It is a small _____ town ideal for walking. It took us one and a half hour to walk along the top of the city walls.	CONVENIENCE
30	This central part of the town dates back to its _____ as a fortress.	FOUND
31	Our _____ city holiday was relaxing, fun and full of museums, tasty food and unforgettable sightseeing. It was a journey through time.	ENJOY