Read the following passage and answer the questions by selecting the correct option.

Passage:

The Mystery of the Missing Painting

In the quiet town of Willowbrook, there was a small art gallery known for its valuable collection of paintings. One day, the curator, Mrs. Henderson, discovered that a famous painting, "The Enigmatic Sunset," was missing from the gallery.

Mrs. Henderson immediately contacted the local police, and Detective Anderson was assigned to the case. He interviewed the gallery staff, reviewed security footage, and questioned visitors who were at the gallery on the day of the disappearance.

During his investigation, Detective Anderson found a hidden door in the storage room that led to a secret passage. The passage led to an abandoned building next door. Detective Anderson followed the trail and found "The Enigmatic Sunset" hidden in a hidden compartment.

The painting was returned to the gallery, and the mystery was solved. It turned out that a former employee, who knew about the secret passage, had stolen the painting with the intention of selling it on the black market.
