Katy's homework

Katy's class was studying the oceans, and her teacher asked them each to do an art project for homework. Katy loved art and her favourite animal was the octopus, so she decided to make a model of one. She didn't know the best way to do it, so she went online and found some information about models. Soon she was ready to start her project.

First, she mixed glue and water together in a big plastic bowl. Then she found some newspaper in the living room and she put small pieces of it into the bowl. Next, she got one round balloon and eight long ones to make the body. She lifted the wet paper out of the bowl, and put each piece around the balloons. After that, she put it by a window to dry. When it was ready, she painted it.

'Your octopus is brilliant!' said Grandpa, 'but I don't think I can read my newspaper now.' He laughed.

'Oh no! I used your newspaper! I'm sorry!' Katy said. Grandpa wanted to go to the shop to get another one, but Katy had a different idea. She went upstairs and got the laptop. 'Look,' she said. 'All the news is on these websites.' 'That's wonderful!' said Grandpa.

They both learned something new today!

Katy and Michael's app

Katy and Michael both enjoy playing computer games. Last summer they talked a lot about designing online games and apps, as well. In the future, they both want to be designers like their father.

In the autumn, they decided to design an app to help kids choose comics or story books. They agreed about something important. Children must enjoy using the app. It mustn't be boring.

'Well, we could make something appear on the screen each time they choose a book,' Michael said.

'OK! What about a really strange creature that hops across the screen, or perhaps we could show rain that changes into a rainbow?'

'Brilliant!' said Michael. 'Shall we ask Dad about this?' 'Yes, let's ask him now,' said Katy.

Their father loved the idea. 'Here's an amazing program,' he said. 'You can use it to make your app. And don't worry. I can help.'

Last month Katy and Michael's app appeared online for the first time! A journalist who wrote for a computer magazine called them about it.

The golf ball

Richard and Emma are friends. One day, Richard said, 'Emma, would you like to play golf?' 'Yes,' said Emma. 'Let's go to the park by the river!' Emma was brilliant at golf, and the ball went a really long way when she hit it.

Richard and Emma saw the ball bounce once on the grass. Then they saw it fall into the river. 'Oh no!' said Emma. The children saw a man who was fishing. 'Our golf ball went into the river. Can we borrow your net to get it, please?' asked Emma. The man agreed.

The children thanked the man, and went to find the ball. 'I can't see the ball from here,' Emma said. 'I know! If we stand up there on that bridge, we can see better,' said Emma. 'Good idea,' said Richard. 'Let's try!'

So they stood on the bridge and tried to get the ball with the net. Then Emma's hat fell off her head and into the river too!

But then a woman walked past with a friendly dog. Suddenly, the dog jumped into the water and fetched both the ball and the hat. The kids decided to stop playing golf and throw the ball for the dog instead, which was much more fun.
