You can do a few things to make homework less stressful. First, be sure you understand the assignment. Write it down in your notebook or day planner if you need to, and don't be afraid to ask questions about what is expected. Second, use any extra time you have in school to work on your homework. Many schools have libraries that are specifically designed to allow students to study or get homework done. Third, pace yourself. You need to plan your time. If it is a heavy homework day, you will need to devote more time to homework.

Whenever you need some help, the first place to turn for help is your teacher. Sometimes it is good to have someone explain something in a different way. In addition, you might also be able to get some help from another student. If there is a friend who is a good student, think about asking that person to study with you.
