

Unit 2. Test 4º

1 The types of animals according to what they eat are:

- a) carnivores, herbivores and viviparous.
- b) carnivores, herbivores and omnivores.
- c) herbivores, omnivores and oviparous.

2 Oviparous animals...

- a) only eat plants.
- b) give birth to live young.
- c) lay eggs.

3 Animals take in oxygen either...

- a) through lungs or through gills.
- b) through the nose or through gills.
- c) through lungs or through wings.

4 ... have a hard internal skeleton with a backbone.

- a) Invertebrates
- b) Vertebrates
- c) Molluscs

5 Sponges, worms, jellyfish and arthropods are...

- a) vertebrates.
- b) insects.
- c) invertebrates.

6 Most invertebrates...

- a) lay eggs.
- b) give birth to live young.
- c) are echinoderms.

7 All molluscs have...

- a) arms.
- b) two shells.
- c) a soft body.

8 Snails and mussels are...

- a) worms.
- b) jellyfish.
- c) molluscs.

9 The body of insects is divided into the head, thorax and...

- a) limbs.
- b) abdomen.
- c) trunk.

10 Insects belong to the invertebrate group called...

- a) cephalopods.
- b) beetles.
- c) arthropods.